Dole was drawn to MOC after witnessing the open atmosphere and culture at the company. "I had a very loyal group of clients to bring with me. I needed the best to offer them and found that at MOC. The team is full of go-getters and a bright, high level of quality people; everyone is completely on their game." Dole brings 25 years of industry expertise to MOC. Emmet Hollins, Broker, Property & Casualty

Emmet Hollins is an expert Risk Management Advisor with more than 20 years of business experience. His focus at MOC is in helping clients evaluate their operational and strategic exposures across business lines to help them achieve a more powerful and sustainable risk management program. While many businesses don't want to talk about insurance, they know they need it. Many clients view Hollins as part of their risk management team, which brings him tremendous pride to continually earn that respect.

Hollins knew MOC would be a fit right from the interview process: "Every person I encountered was excited to be working at MOC and had long-term clients across all industries. In other brokerages, the office is usually empty at 4:59 p.m. At MOC, people aren't watching the clock. Instead, they work and strategize with colleagues about how they can better serve their clients. Management doesn't ask people to stay late or work harder. We want MOC to be the number one client choice, and that must be earned daily."
